DEFENDANT C&S WHOLESALE GROCERS, INC.'S RENEWED EX PARTE
MOTION FOR ISSUANCE OF WRIT OF EXECUTION AFTER JUDGMENT
OR IN THE ALTERNATIVE FOR JUDGMENT
CREDITOR'S BILL IN EQUITY

Judgment creditor, C&S Wholesale Grocers Inc., by and through its attorneys Kobayashi, Sugita & Goda, hereby moves this Honorable Court to issue a Writ of Execution or, in the alternative, grant a Creditor's Bill in Equity, directing the Deputy Sheriff of the State of Hawaii to hold an auction and sell the following property of judgment-debtor, Wayne Berry, or as much of it as is necessary to satisfy the following debts of Mr. Berry: (1) the federal Tax Lien in the amount of $44,639.79 plus penalties and interest recorded against Mr. Berry on February 1, 2000 in favor of the Internal Revenue Service and against Wayne F. Berry and his spouse, a true copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit "A"; and (2) the judgment entered herein in favor of C&S Wholesale Grocers, Inc. in the amount of $84,758.98 plus interest accrued thereon; and (3) any claims of the other judgment creditors herein who may elect to join in this motion.

The specific assets C&S seeks to have sold pursuant to this motion are the following:

Wayne Berry has testified under oath that he is the author of each of the above referenced works and that he has received no income from them for the past ten years. A copy of the relevant pages from his judgment-debtor examination is attached hereto as Exhibit “B.”

B. Mr. Berry’s Right, Title And Interest, If Any To The Following Unregistered Works

This motion further seeks to have sold at public auction Mr. Berry’s right title and interest in the following “works” which are not registered in the U.S. Copyright Office or otherwise specifically identified:

1. The computer programs described in paragraphs 102 and 109 of the Second Amended Complaint filed herein on June 18, 2004 as “no less than 30 of the other programs created by Mr. Berry” that Berry claims “remained on the Fleming server when it was sold to C&S” (paragraph 102); and Mr. Berry’s methods, program devices, and techniques, as evidenced by the at least 30 additional programs” (paragraph 109). A copy of relevant pages from the Second Amended Complaint is attached hereto as Exhibit “C.”

2. The thousands of works, which Mr. Mr. Berry described in his deposition in this case as follows:

Q How many trade secrets do you contend the defendants in this case have misappropriated from you, sir?

A It's a lot. I'm not sure. Like I say, we'd need to review the Guidance images to determine that.

Q Can you estimate it, sir?

A It's got to be in the thousands.

Q Thus far at least, you have not actually listed a conclusive list of what those trade secrets are; am I right?

A I produced a list, which I believe you have a copy of it. It's an unruly list. It's got 26, 27,000 suspect file names.

Deposition of Wayne Berry Taken May 18 2005, pages 79-80 (copies attached).

3. Any and all of Wayne Berry's Right Title And Interest To Any of the approximately 27,000 computer files on the list attached hereto as Exhibit "D"¹ which Mr. Berry produced in this case claiming it contained his trade secrets.

C. All Computer Programs Authored By Mr. Berry That Are Part Of, Or Work With, The Software Mr. Berry Claims Was Licensed Under The "EULA" A Copy Of Which Is Attached Hereto As Exhibit "E"

In 1999, Mr. Berry granted Fleming a license to use software that he had installed on Fleming's computers in Hawaii. The license does not identify the filenames that it covers. The copyright to any and all such computer files covered by that license should be sold regardless of whether they are registered or not.

D. Causes of Action

1. All of the causes of action alleged by Wayne Berry in the Second Amended Complaint filed in the United States District Court for the District of New York entitled Wayne Berry vs. Deutsche Bank, et al. (a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit "F"); and

2. All of the causes of action alleged in the instant lawsuit.

3. All of the rights contained in the judgment contained in Berry v. Fleming, CV 01 00446 SPK LEK, aff'd, 243 Fed.Appx. 260.

The Sheriff should be ordered to, after giving public notice, hold a public auction at which the above identified property shall be sold to the highest bidder, subject to the lien in favor of the Internal Revenue Service which has already attached to all of the same property, and resulted in the transfer thereof (a copy of the tax lien is attached hereto as Exhibit "A").

The order should further provide that C&S Wholesale Grocers Inc., and the other judgment creditors herein should have the right to credit-bid for Wayne Berry's rights in and to the registered and unregistered copyrights as well as all causes of action and all rights existing in any pending lawsuits, subject to the tax lien and/or liens of the Internal Revenue Service.

This motion is based upon Hawaii Revised Statutes § 651-31 et seq., the inherent powers of Hawaii's Courts under Hawaii law to order a sale of patents, copyrights and causes of action in order to satisfy judgment creditors, Rules 7 and 69 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the attached Memorandum of Law, Declaration of Lex R. Smith and Exhibits attached hereto, and the record and file in this case.
